

Your Province. Your Vote.

Election Day: Wednesday, November 7, 2007

Your future will be decided one vote at a time.

The next Saskatchewan government will be decided by the people who vote.

For your future, and the future of everyone in this province, take the time to learn about the issues, decide what you think is best – then make your voice heard.

Every vote matters. And when you vote, you matter, too.

Enumeration – We'll be calling on you soon.

Enumerators will soon be going door to door to collect information and prepare the Voters' List.

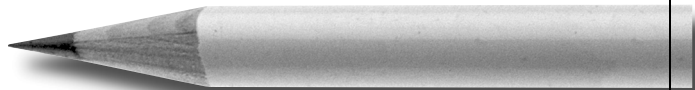

Your cooperation is essential and appreciated.

Please watch for additional election information in the days ahead.
